Men Journeying through Grief

A unique support opportunity for men only

Though the experience of grief is not limited to men alone, there are sometimes differences in the way men and women express and process their grief. Messages from our culture and the ways men have been raised can be obstacles to journeying through grief. Please join us for a home-cooked meal followed by sharing of grief information and support resources. The first Wednesday of every month, 6-8 pm at the Affinity Visiting Nurses office, 816 W. Winneconne Avenue, Neenah. Pre-registration is not required, but appreciated for meal planning purposes. Call toll-free 1.866.236.8500.
